CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: Be still for a moment. What do you hear? What do you smell? What do you feel under your feet? Beloved, God is here.

People: In the familiar and unfamiliar, God is here with us.

Leader: Take a moment to look around. Whom do you notice? Who isn't here that you expected to see? Whether this community feels brand new or familiar to you, God is here.

People: In the familiar and unfamiliar, God is here with us.

Leader: Take a deep breath. We share this air, this space, this worship home together. In our breathing and worshipping in this time and place, God is here.

People: In the familiar and unfamiliar, God is here with us.

Leader: God is here. May we pay attention and discern how God brings us together in the familiar and the unfamiliar to be and become the Body of Christ.

People: May we notice and join in God's work of forming us for community as we worship today. Amen.

Native American Ministries Sunday is a significant day in the United Methodist Church, set aside to recognize and celebrate the rich cultural heritage and spiritual contributions of Native Americans within the church and broader society. It serves as an opportunity for United Methodists to reflect on the unique struggles faced by Native American communities, while also affirming their importance as part of the Body of Christ. Through the gifts received on this day, the church supports Native American seminary students, equips Native American congregations, and provides funding for vital ministries. This special Sunday uplifts the voices and leadership of Native American individuals and congregations, acknowledging their sacred stories and inviting all United Methodists to join in efforts of reconciliation, justice, and restoration.
